this publication presents the perspectives and insights of the world’s present day authorities on bridge aesthetics and design. Bridge engineers and architects representing 16 nations examine and highlight the aesthetic appearance of existing bridges with the goal of improving tomorrow’s bridge design. Supplementing the individual papers is a comprehensive bibliography on bridge aesthetics containing annotated references to more than 250 books, papers, and articles. There are 245 black and white photographs and numerous line drawings plus 24 pages of color plates. Author biographical information is provided, and an index of bridges and locations is included. Individual entries into the Tris Data Base have been made for the 22 papers and the bibliography.

with contributions from activists, artists, and scholars, Afro Asia is a groundbreaking collection of writing on the historical alliances, cultural connections, and shared political strategies linking African Americans and Asian Americans. Bringing together autobiography, poetry, scholarly criticism, and other genres, this volume represents an activist vanguard in the cultural struggle against oppression. Afro Asia opens with analyses of historical connections between people of African and of Asian descent, an account of nineteenth-century Chinese laborers who fought against slavery and colonialism in Cuba. It appears alongside an exploration of African Americans’ reactions to and experiences of the Korean conflict. Contributors examine the fertile period of Afro-Asian exchange that began around the time of the 1955 Bandung Conference, the first meeting of leaders from Asian and African nations in the postcolonial era. One assesses the relationship of two important 1960s Asian American activists to Malcolm X and the Black Panthers. Mao Zedong’s 1963 and 1968 statements in support of black liberation are juxtaposed with an overview of the influence of Maoism on African American leftists turning to the arts. Ishmael Reed provides a brief account of how he met and helped several Asian American writers. A Vietnamese American spoken word artist describes the impact of black hip hop culture on working-class urban Asian American youth. Fred Ho interviews Bill Cole, an African American jazz musician who plays Asian double reed instruments. This pioneering collection closes with an array of creative writing, including poetry, memoir, and a dialogue about identity and friendship that two writers—one Japanese American and the other African American—have performed around the United States. Contributors: Betsy Esch, Diane C. Fujino, Royal Hartigan, Kim Hewitt.
