a gorgeously illustrated exploration of the science behind the universe’s most stunning natural phenomena from atoms and parameciums to rainbows, snowflakes, spider webs, the rings of Saturn, galaxies and more. Nature is capable of extraordinary phenomena standing in awe of those phenomena we experience a feeling of connection to the cosmos for acclaimed physicist and novelist Alan Lightman. Just as remarkable is that all of what we see around us—soap bubbles, scarlet ibises, shooting stars—are made out of the same material stuff and obey the same rules and laws. This is what Lightman calls spiritual materialism: the belief that we can embrace spiritual experiences without letting go of our scientific worldview.

Pairing 36 beautiful full-color photos evoking some of nature’s most awe-inspiring phenomena with accessible and lyrical personal essays, the Miraculous from the Material explores the fascinating science underlying the natural world. Why do rainbows make an arc? Why does a particular waterfall at Yosemite National Park sometimes glow like it’s on fire? How does a hummingbird fly? The world has so many things to marvel at and the science is just as fascinating.

Lightman’s imagination travels from the world of atoms and molecules to the animal kingdom, from places like Halong Bay, Vietnam, and the Grand Canyon out to the solar system and beyond, illuminating the majesty of the cosmos and the remarkable science behind it. The Miraculous from the Material is a stunning soaring ode to the beauty and wonder around us.

The secret of soul using our body experiences to understand our true nature William Buhlman

We were never intended to be dominated by all the negation and inharmony that exists in the world. We were fashioned equipped and given power for one purpose only and that is to transmute every negative and inharmonious condition which exists in the world. Yet we find very few that know this is the reason for which we were created. We do not know what our true purpose is because we do not know the real foundation of our being and are not familiar with the laws of creation. We do not understand the reasoning behind the things we do in our metaphysical rituals and practices. By studying creation, we receive all the answers.

Psyche's Exile: An Empirical Odyssey in Search of the Soul

Psyche means soul in Greek and psychology literally means the study of the soul. For over a century, American psychology has gone in precisely the opposite direction: soul, mind, and brain with no exceptions. This reductionist paradigm is challenged in this book as Professor Kroth reviews eight politically incorrect forbidden databases in his empirical pursuit of the immortal soul of the ages. Near death experiences, deathbed visions, precognitive dreams, premonitions, synchronicity, telepathy, states of possession, just to name a few, lead to a fascinating rediscovery of the soul. Reviews of Psyche's Exile is an absolute treasure trove of carefully collected experiential and experimental data spanning the research areas of anthropology, sociology, religion, spirituality, psychology, and physics. Although we are still some human evolutionary time away from experimentally proving the existence of the human soul, there is certainly enough good data available at present to make it a viable working hypothesis. Dr. Kroth is dedicated to his craft as a professional explorer of nature in its many forms. For myself, I wouldn't hesitate to recommend this book to my scientific colleagues and my friends. William A. Tiller, Ph.D., professor of physics, Stanford University, author of Science and Human Transformation.

The eternal continuation of life with this body in a future paradisiacal kingdom of god on earth is one of the most enigmatic of religious ideas it fully contradicts our knowledge of the transitoriness of all things in this universe according to the author the origin for this idea lies in certain forms of otherworld experiences as for example reported by people who had near death experiences encounters with the dead in brilliantly beautiful bodies and the experience of paradisiacal seemingly earthly landscapes he observes that cultures with a pre modern cosmology sometimes projected such otherworld experiences onto this world to distant and unknown locations on earth these experiences were the blueprint for an expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth the author establishes parallels between the reports of otherworld experiences and the eschatological ideas of zoroastrianism judaism and christianity he shows that otherworld experiences can indeed foster the expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth by referring to the ghost dance movement of the lakota people in 1890 he presumes that the confusion of worlds proved fatal not only for the lakota people but also for jesus of nazareth
