When Christians learn about Jewish tradition and history, they see the Bible and the life of Jesus with a new and enriched perspective. Knowing more about Judaism brings them closer to Jesus because Jesus lived and died as a Jew and consistently quoted the Jewish scripture and stories in this book. Evan Moffic, popular Rabbi, author, and guide to Jewish wisdom for people of all faiths, continues the What Every Christian Needs to Know series with an exploration of the wisdom and traditions of Judaism. Rabbi Moffic provides answers to hundreds of questions he receives about Judaism to provide a deeper understanding of the roots shared by Christians and Jews. Through this book’s explorations, readers will learn insights of the great Jewish sages to live a richer and more meaningful life. Soak up the wisdom and traditions of Judaism and develop a closer relationship with God. My hope is that these teachings can serve as a way of fostering bonds focused not on the past and the troubled history between Jews and Christians but rather on looking forward to a future in which we share wisdom with one another.

Bible Proof

The Apostle Paul's Letter to the Romans sets forth the things a Christian needs to know to be firmly grounded and established in Christian faith. Christianity 101 examines each of the areas Paul addressed in detail, comparing them to other passages to help clarify Paul's meanings. Each major topic is divided up into smaller, more easily understood sections based on Paul's own writings. Starting with man's need for a savior, it examines how salvation is possible and what part baptism plays. It then considers the part the Holy Spirit plays in the Christian's daily life. Once the individual understands what God has done for him in saving him, it moves to the results of a sound Christian faith, including witnessing to others walking in the Spirit, edifying the Church, and personal ministry. Without such a sound basis, it is unlikely the Christian will ever be able to live a life that is pleasing to God.
