At Nuremberg in 1945 General Erwin von Lahousen, Vivremont, head of Abwehr II, the sabotage division of the German armed forces secret service, shocked the world with his revelations of Nazi war crimes. He exposed the activities of Goering, Ribbentrop, and other top-ranking Third Reich officials, but there was much more he did not tell. Here is the rest of his story: the top secret details of Germany's international espionage ring during World War II. Lahousen had kept a diary in the United States, Britain, France, and other countries. His agents, often citizens of these countries, had provided the Nazis with blueprints of U.S. military machinery. Robey, Leibbrandt, the young African Olympic boxer, spies of beautiful Vera, bilingual mistress of an Abwehr agent, and many others, their astounding stories, along with that of the master spy Lahousen, appear documented and unabridged in these pages. No fictional spy novel can compare with the drama and excitement of the authentic espionage missions.
