District of Columbia Appropriations for 1971 1970 question what do you do when the kitchen wall collapses into the vat of beans being cooked for a horde of hungry schoolboys answer you serve it up anyway why let a few lumps of clay and the odd metal screw spoil a decent meal when bunmi asaolu arrived at the grand gates of st john mary s unity secondary school sajomaco as a first year student you d be forgiven for assuming he was swapping life on the serene university campus he grew up on for another of equal civility wrong behind the gates of sajomaco lay a world of contradictions unspoken but strict hierarchical codes juxtaposed with utter chaos asaolu presents a wry satirical and at once serious look at a nigerian public boarding school in the 1990s through the eyes of a sheltered child navigating its brutal corridors in surviving sajomaco asaolu s experiences and those of his contemporaries are laid bare giving the reader a raw and at times jarring insight into the incongruencies of school life whilst subtly tracking the story of nigeria itself

Hearings 1970 an army doctor s classic vietnam war memoir a national book award finalist and a book of great emotional impact plus two powerful novels the new york times published in 1971 with the vietnam war still raging ronald glasser s unflinching memoir of one doctor s experience with the human cost of the devastating conflict was hailed by william styron as a moving account about tremendous courage and often immeasurable suffering a valuable and redemptive work 365 days quickly became a powerful anti war statement of the time that still resonates today selling over two hundred thousand copies turning to fiction glasser continued to draw on his own experience as a doctor in the vietnam war and as an intern in a pediatric ward to craft novels of gripping drama and heartfelt poignancy 365 days in 1968 as a serviceman in the Vietnam War, Ronald Glasser, a pediatrician, was sent to Japan to work at the US Army hospital tending to children of officers and government officials but he was soon caught up in the waves of casualties that poured in from every Vietnam front. In 365 Days, Glasser reveals a candid and shocking account of that harrowing experience, giving voice to the wounded, the maimed, and the dead with unflinching candor and compassionate humanity. The most convincing, most moving account I have yet to read about what it was like to be an American soldier in Vietnam.

Newsweek another war another peace assigned to Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War, an idealistic young doctor forms an unlikely bond with his driver, a battle-hardened soldier, as they struggle to bring medical aid to Vietnamese villagers. The author of the remarkable classic 365 Days has in this small novel written with such power about a young American doctor in the war zone that surely he has added another memorable book to the literature of those ghastly years. Gloria Emerson, author of winners losers, ward 402, in this gripping, authentic, and impassioned novel, an intern on pediatric ward 402, fights to save an eleven-year-old girl with advanced leukemia which her parents believe to be terminal. Dr. Glasser can describe a medical emergency in a way that makes the entire scene spring to life.

Commission on revision of the criminal laws of the District of Columbia, human resources, highways and traffic, sanitary engineering, education, testimony of citizens and organizations of the District of Columbia, Washington metropolitan area transit authority. 1970. From the author of 365 Days comes a poignant, personally inspired tale of a rookie doctor fighting for the life of a desperately ill young girl, a story that grows ever more relevant in this world of increasingly sophisticated and technical medical care. In this riveting and passionately rendered novel, an intern faces the harsh realities of his profession and the overwhelming highs and lows for which medical school was unable to prepare him. The call comes at three in the morning ordering the intern to handle a new admission at the pediatric ward of the university hospital. He finds eleven-year-old Mary Berquam diagnosed with advanced leukemia. The doctors think they might be able to give her drug therapies and put her in remission. But her parents know Mary's disease is fatal and they want to keep her comfortable rather than put her through painful treatments. The young intern must confront what it means to follow the conventions of his job versus the calling of his conscience.
