now in paperback this book covers chrysler s incredible series of muscle cars in 1955 chrysler introduced the first of its famed 300 letter series cars the company designed a stylish sporty car stuffed in one of its potent hemi engines and gave birth to the american muscle car the c 300 s combination of style and performance put the mopar brand ahead of its competitors in the postwar performance race when the detroit performance wars began in earnest during the 1960s chrysler was well positioned to build the most outrageous bodacious cars of an outrageous bodacious era cars like the famed charger hemi cuda road runner superbird and challenger t a these cars dominated the dragstrips as well as the nascar ovals and with color combinations guaranteed to burn out the corneas of your eyes if you stared at them directly they ruled the streets of america they ruled not just the streets bu the drive ins and parking lots nothing was cooler than mopar muscle over the years these legendary mopar muscle cars were the fastest baddest assed most outrageous machines to rip up american pavement this lavishly produced book is definitely a feast for all fans of this line of cars the photography by david newhardt is absolutely stunning not only are the pictures big and of the highest quality but the thought that has gone into their composition is plain for all to see it could be argued that given the striking nature of these cars and the wonderful backdrops it would be hard to go wrong but newhardt went the extra mile here and it shows the story is also very comprehensive listing all of the cars from the line and taking time to tell the story in a well researched yet caring way it is obvious that robert genat knows the subject well and loves it even more this book is a must have for all lovers of american muscle and thanks to the sheer depth of its coverage and drop dead

The Manual of Dates 1877

as the muscle car wars developed in the early 1960s auto manufacturers scrambled to find catchy marketing campaigns to entice the buying public into their dealerships. General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler with all their divisions, as well as AMC and Studebaker, inevitably sank billions of dollars into one-upmanship in an effort to vie for the consumer's last dollar. Automotive writer Diego Rosenberg examines the tactics and components used by manufacturers in waging war against one another in the muscle car era. Manufacturers poured millions into racing programs operating under the principle of win on Sunday, sell on Monday. Cars were given catchy nicknames such as the GTO, Judge, Plymouth Roadrunner, Cobra, and Dodge Super Bee. Entire manufacturer lines were given catchy marketing campaigns such as Dodge's Scat Pack, AMC's Go Package, and Ford's Total Performance. From racing to commercials to print ads, from dealer showrooms to national auto shows, each manufacturer had its own approach in vying for the buyer's attention, and gimmicks and tactics ranged from comical to dead serious. Selling American muscle car marketing, Detroit iron in the 60s and 70s, takes you back to an era when options were plentiful and performance was cheap. You will relive or be introduced to some of the cleverest marketing campaigns created during a time when America was changing every day.
