the increasingly arcane world of DNA profiling demands that those needing to understand at least some of it must find a source of reliable and understandable information. Combining material from the successful Wiley Encyclopedia of Forensic Science with newly commissioned and updated material, the editors have used their own extensive experience in criminal casework across the world to compile an informative guide that will provide knowledge and thought-provoking articles of interest to anyone involved or interested in the use of DNA in the forensic context. Following extensive introductory chapters covering forensic DNA profiling and forensic genetics, this comprehensive volume presents a substantial breadth of material covering fundamental material including sources of DNA validation and accreditation analysis and interpretation including extraction, quantification, amplification, and interpretation of electropherograms, EPGs, evaluation including mixtures, low template, and transfer applications. Databases, paternity, and kinship mitochondrial DNA, wildlife DNA, single nucleotide polymorphism, phenotyping, and familial searching court report writing, discovery, cross-examination, and current controversies with contributions from leading experts across the whole gamut of forensic science.

This volume is intended to be authoritative but not authoritarian. Informative but comprehensible and comprehensive but concise, it will prove to be a valuable addition and useful resource for scientists, lawyers, teachers, criminologists, and judges.

Organized crime—The Mafia or the Outfit as it is known in Chicago—is surrounded by a false glamour that elevates mobsters to the level of swashbuckling folk heroes whose ready violence and savage murders are too often excused in the public mind as acceptable because they only hurt each other similarly illegal gambling. The bread and butter racket inevitably combined with loan-sharking and extortion is widely tolerated because it is perceived to be a victimless crime. Donald H. Herion, a US Army veteran during the Korean War who grew up in a neighborhood where there was a bookmaker on every corner sometimes two or three learned just how wrong all that was when he returned home from the army and joined the Chicago Police Department. He wasn’t sure that he was doing the right thing at the time because he really never liked cops but if he didn’t like it, he could always quit. He thought after six years learning the ropes in the Patrol Division, collaring burglars and stick-up men, chasing daredevil drivers, calming adversaries in domestic disputes, and riding herd on drunks and dope dealers, he was promoted to plainclothes as a vice cop investigating illegal gambling, narcotics, prostitution, and gang bangers. He quickly learned that chasing bookmakers and busting up wire rooms was a fight against organized crime. Illegal gambling was organized crime’s biggest money maker, the golden calf that financed most of its other illicit activities ranging from stock and bankruptcy swindles to the narcotics trade. Herion and his partner were transferred to the Vice Control Section of the Organized Crime Division at Police Headquarters at 1121 S State Street where he now had jurisdiction to make raids anywhere in the City of Chicago instead of only in his district. He was promoted to Detective Sergeant. He rubbed shoulders with degenerate gamblers, bookmakers, prostitutes, and stone cold killers while witnessing first hand how gambling destroys lives. He broke up more than 4,000 gambling operations, arrested hundreds of mob-controlled bookmakers and other racketeers. Herion also had the pleasure of busting up the mob’s biggest floating crap game eight times. costing the crime syndicate millions of dollars to accomplish this it was necessary for him to work on his own time as well as city time the mob moved the game into the suburbs which was out of his jurisdiction so herion worked with chicago tribune crime reporter bob wiedrich to get the job done the crap game took every precaution necessary to keep from being discovered lookouts with walkie talkies roved the area where the game was held to warn the operators of the game of any police in the area one suburb had a local police lieutenant and sergeant as lookouts the lieutenant who became aware of there presence in the area stuck his gun in their face wanting to know who they were herion had used his own car to conduct a surveillance hoped that the lieutenant didn t check his license number when the reporter explained to the lieutenant that they were watching a crime syndicate crap game going on in a building down the street and would he like to accompany them on a raid the lieutenant at this point made an excuse and left the area this of course caused some heat but the reporter had already had his story about the game which made headlines in the chicago tribune the next day on another occasion the game began again and was next to a railroad track in another suburban building in melrose park a suburb west of chicago there was only one road in and out lookouts with walkie talkies were posted everywhere in the area herion had his son don print a sign on plasterboard 4 by 6 with large letters in red paint crap game operated by mob boss jackie cerone with an arrow pointing to where the game was being held herion nailed the sign on a telephone pole on the road leading to the game wi
