Rachel's irish family food 120 classic recipes from my home to yours (2023)

Rachel Allen, the face of real Irish cooking, shares the authentic Irish recipes that bring her family and friends racing to the table. With Rachel's Irish Family Food, you can bring a taste of Ireland to your table too. Irish celebrity chef Kevin Dundon shares the recipes he cooks at home and shows how easy it is to eat good food every day. Shares authentic Irish recipes including mussels with garlic and bread crumbs, roast duck with potato stuffing and sweet scones with blueberry jam. From the award-winning weekly Guardian cook, columnist, and winner of the André Simon and Guild of Food Writers awards, comes an Italian food book of sumptuous recipes, flavours, and stories from Sicily and Rome. For the last twelve years, food writer, cook, and photographer Rachel Roddy has immersed herself in the culture of Roman cooking but it was the flavours of the south that she and her Sicilian partner Vincenzo often craved. Eventually, the chance arose to spend more time at his old family house in southeast Sicily, where Rachel embraced the country's traditional recipes and the stories behind them. In Two Kitchens, Rachel celebrates the food and flavours of Rome and Sicily and shares over 120 simple, everyday dishes from her two distant but connected kitchens. From tomato and salted ricotta salad, caponata, and baked Sicilian pasta to lemon crumble, honeyed peaches, and almond and chocolate cake, they are the authentic Italian recipes that you will want to cook again and again until you've made them your own. This is a recipe book that reflects the way I cook and eat: uncomplicated, direct, and adaptable Italian family food that reflects the season. The Two Kitchens of the title are my kitchens in Rome and Sicily. In a sense, though, we could have called the book Many Kitchens as I invite you to make these recipes your own. Rachel's first book, Five Quarters, Recipes and Notes from a Kitchen in Rome, won the André Simon Food Book Award and the Guild of Food Writers First Book Award in 2015. Report for 1898 has an appendix condensed index of reports of Connecticut Board of Agriculture 1866-1898. Outside of Italy, the country's culture and its food appear to be essentially synonymous. Preparing, cooking, and eating food play a central role in the daily activities of Italians from all walks of life. In this beautifully illustrated book, Douglas Harper and Patrizia Faccioli present a fascinating and colorful look at the Italian table. The Italian Way focuses on twelve families in the city of Bologna, elegantly weaving together Harper’s outsider perspective with Faccioli’s intimate knowledge of the local customs. The authors interview and observe these families as they go shopping for ingredients, cook together, and argue over who has to wash the dishes. Throughout the book, the authors elucidate the guiding principle of the Italian table: a delicate balance between the structure of tradition and the joy of improvisation. With its bite-sized history of food in Italy, including the five hundred year old story of the country’s cookbooks and Harper’s mouth-watering photographs, The Italian Way is a rich, repast, insightful, informative, and inviting family recipe book.
