the dictionary of louisiana french dlf provides the richest inventory of french vocabulary in louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present this dictionary describes the current usage of french speaking peoples in the five broad regions of south louisiana the
The dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings. The new authoritative resource, the DLF, not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry. Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling, the pronunciation (including attested variants), the part of speech classification, the English equivalent, and the word's use in common phrases. The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled. An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in Louisiana.

A landmark in the study of early modern Europe, this two-volume collection makes available for the first time a selection of the most important texts from court and civic festival books. Festival entertainments were presented to mark such occasions as royal and ducal entries to capital cities, dynastic marriages, the birth and christening of heirs, religious feasts, and royal and ducal funerals. Europa triumphans represents the chronological and trans-European range of the court and civic festival. These festivals are represented not simply as texts but as events and are introduced by groups of scholars each with a specialist knowledge of the political, social, and cultural significance of the festival and of the iconography of spectacle, music, dance, voice, and gesture in which they were expressed.
