excerpt from the dictionary of biographical reference containing one hundred thousand names together with a classed index of the biographical literature of europe and america of works on biography the number is legion nevertheless it appeared to the compiler of the present volume that room still existed for a compendium in which by a judicious system of compression 3 students dictionary might be formed which would register what after all is of the first importance to them viz the more prominent dates and facts and at the same time assist them to the knowledge of works of a more recondite nature in which fuller information might be found if needed such a compendium is now before the reader an approximation to the system adopted has been attempted by others but in no case has it been carried out to the extent of the present work neither has the system of reference the principal feature of this design ever been essayed if thought of the want which the present work is intended to supply is one which must have been experienced by every earnest reader or writer the value of the data upon which the generalisations of both must rest mainly depends upon the readiness with which they can be verified and no facts are more frequently in requisition for this purpose than those connected with the personal history of individuals and when these are not of such note as to have taken their place in general history it will be evident to all that much valuable time is frequently wasted in the attempt to identify them about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
