Now available in three thematic volumes, the second edition of "Moral Issues in Global Perspective" is a collection of the newest and best articles on current moral issues by moral and political theorists from around the globe. Each volume seeks to challenge the standard approaches to morality and moral issues shaped by Western liberal theory and to extend the inquiry beyond the context of North America. Covering a broad range of issues and arguments, this collection includes critiques of traditional liberal accounts of rights, justice, and moral values while raising questions about the treatment of disadvantaged groups within and across societies affected by globalization. Providing new perspectives on issues such as war, terrorism, reproduction, euthanasia, censorship, and the environment. Each volume of "Moral Issues in Global Perspective" incorporates work by race, class, feminist, and disability theorists. Human diversity and equality. The second of the three volumes examines issues of equality and difference and the effects within and across borders of kinds of discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, gender, disability, class, and sexual orientation. Nine essays are new; four of which were written especially for this volume. Moral issues in global perspective is available in three separate volumes, moral and political theory, human diversity, and equality, and moral issues.
