Ken Fisher is founder and CEO of Fisher Investments, an independent money management firm managing over $35 billion as of Dec 31, 2009 for individuals and institutions. Fisher has written the monthly portfolio strategy column for Forbes magazine for the last twenty-five years since 1984, making him the fourth longest running columnist in the magazine's history. During this time, he has seen everything from the stock market crash of 1987 and the great bull markets of the 1980s and 1990s to the tech bubble of 2000 and the global market meltdown of 2008. Now, with the making of a market guru, you'll gain an insightful look at Fisher's prolific career over the years and discover the high-profile market calls he's made so far. In these monthly columns, at times engaging and timely at others revealing and informative, this book is a sweeping look at a recent and eventful slice of stock market history. You'll read about what's changed but you'll be more amazed by what hasn't and you'll see investing wisdom that still applies now and for the foreseeable future. From a quarter century of Fisher's concise and witty market wisdom preceding Fisher's columns for each year are a few pages of commentary putting them in historic context, pointing out areas that are still salient and others where Fisher's perspective has changed over the years. Highlighting key points that deserve extra attention, chapter by chapter, this book offers practical investment advice from a leading market voice while looking at Fisher's market analysis over the years and providing an industry insider's view of major and not so major market events. Examining how Fisher called three of the last four bear markets, showing that what many commonly think impacts markets doesn't and some very surprising things that do impact markets that few are aware of and much more, the more things change, the more they stay the same, at least when it comes to investing and seeing history through the eyes of a market guru. Field Stream, America's largest outdoor sports magazine, celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories, compelling photography, and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations. There isn't another place in the world that can match Detroit's automotive history for nearly a century.
