erica winkle brown the former chief naval test pilot and commanding officer of the renowned aerodynamics flight at the royal aircraft establishment farnborough is listed in the guinness book of records as having flown more types of aircraft than any other pilot in the world the ground rules for this assessment were that only pilot in command flights should count and that marks or variants of a basic type of aircraft were not included this remarkable record is reflected in the fact that captain brown is both the most decorated fleets air arm and british test pilot the variety of aircraft he has flown is incredible and though his test and naval flying writings are already internationally known he now has opened up pages of his flying log books to reveal some of the more unusual types in his unique experience and to relate their virtues or vices from the
