Event Planning 2Nd Edition 2013-01-15

Event planning is an exciting option for individuals who desire to work as event managers individuals can work as an organisation's primary event planner or they can freelance as an event planning entrepreneur. Their primary responsibility in either case would be to successfully plan and organise events. Event planning can involve time-consuming detailed work that will require dedication on the part of the event planner to plan and execute the staging of an event. It can be rewarding and satisfying to see the results of your planning efforts coming together in a successful event. This book is dedicated to explaining the practical skills required for event planning in a simple format. The goal is to allow readers to have a greater understanding of what it takes to successfully plan and manage an event and to help them put their knowledge into practical use.

First LEGO League 2012-07-09

First LEGO League (FLL) is an international program for kids ages 9 to 14 that combines a hands-on interactive robotics program and research presentation with a sports-like atmosphere. Authors James Floyd Kelly and Jonathan Daudelin, both participants in numerous first LEGO league competitions, have teamed up to bring coaches, teachers, parents, and students an all-in-one guide to FLL written for both rookie and experienced teams. First LEGO League: The Unofficial Guide includes in-depth coverage of topics like team formation and organization, robot building and programming, and the basics of getting involved with FLL. Before the authors delve into the specifics of robot and team building, they reveal the fascinating history of the first organisation and the sometimes puzzling structure of the FLL competition using a combination of real-life stories and candid commentary from actual FLL teams as well as recollections of their own experiences. They offer an abundance of helpful guidance and dependable building and programming examples. First LEGO League: The Unofficial Guide explores the complex workings and structure of the FLL competition, including its four key components—robot game, technical interview, project, and teamwork. You'll learn how to organize, recruit, and manage a team, find equipment, mentors, and funding. Design and build and program winning robots. Tackle each of the four FLL components from robot game to teamwork use strategies and techniques from FLL masters to increase your scores no matter what your role in the FLL competition.

Fundraising Management in a Changing Museum World 2014

Fundraising management in a changing museum world explains how cultural organizations can successfully create sustainable fundraising programs that will increase financial support and stabilize revenue during times of change. Drawing on the authors' extensive experience, this book provides guidance that will enable readers to establish and maintain an efficient and effective fundraising program. Demonstrating that a strategic fundraising management plan is critical for identifying areas of growth, the authors also clarify how it helps to leverage an institution's resources and connections and ensure that time and budget are invested into the right activities. Readers will learn how to develop a plan for their organization, choose appropriate methods of solicitation for their audiences, and identify the roles of employees and volunteers in the process. Fundraising management in a changing museum world is relevant to practitioners working in many different types and sizes of institutions around the world. The book is essential reading for development professionals as well as other museum practitioners, leaders, and volunteers. It is a valuable tool for early career professionals and students considering employment in the cultural field.

Like library users, library donors hail from all walks of life regardless of the scope or complexity of library fundraising. Successful efforts are always about forging and strengthening relationships with the range of stakeholders throughout the community. Dowd and her team from Library Strategies, a consulting group of the Friends of St. Paul Public Library, share proven strategies that have brought in more than 1 million annually. Believing that private fundraising is a natural for libraries large and small, they start with 12 facts about library fundraising and focus on activities with the highest return. Tips and features include the gift pyramid model for developing the culture of giving that leads to big gifts, overcoming fears of sponsorship, and embracing cause-related marketing pitching the appropriate charitable gift, confronting common fears of requesting major gifts, the pros and cons of membership programs.

With more universities facing financial difficulty and academic libraries being asked to do more with less, fundraising has been transformed from a luxury to a necessity now more than ever. Academic libraries need to know how to effectively obtain and steward donors. Most fundraising books are written from perspectives that are not always relevant to the complex environment that academic libraries must navigate. Fundraising for academic libraries is written just for academic libraries. The authors demystify fundraising to enable those to work in an academic library to feel confident in their ability to obtain contributions, sponsorships, and grants for their libraries from major gifts to events to special collections. This book looks at academic library fundraising holistically. Not a one-size-fits-all approach, chapters explore multiple methods that an academic library can use to identify potential donors, ask for gifts, and retain existing contributors. This book also connects readers with extensive fundraising resources so they can readily apply the book's tips and techniques to their own library environment whether they are interested in approaching a local business to provide a prize for a silent auction or asking for an established donor for an estate gift.
fundraisers will find step by step instructions that help them navigate a variety of situations by providing readers with practical fundraising tools including flow charts simple proposal and gift templates as well as sample donor correspondence this book enables academic libraries to be able to start and advance their own development programs
