The kinfolk home interiors for slow living [PDF]

The kinfolk home interiors for slow living showcases how embracing that same ethos of slowing down simplifying your life and cultivating community allows you to create a more considered beautiful and intimate living space. The Kinfolk Home takes readers inside 35 homes around the world from the United States, Scandinavia, Japan and beyond. Some have constructed modern urban homes from blueprints while others nurture their home’s long history. What all of these spaces have in common is that they’ve been put together carefully slowly and with great intention featuring inviting photographs and insightful profiles, interviews and essays. Each home tour is guaranteed to inspire.
Perspective in this book, Miro Roman and his AI Alice Ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information. They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation. The authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science. A stunningly photographed collection of homes featuring sustainable designs that celebrate the ingenuity of reclaimed materials and unexpected antiques from the founders of Detroit-based furniture design brand Woodward Throwbacks, which creates original furniture and home goods using reclaimed materials salvaged in Detroit in throwbacks. Home interiors sing to the creativity of home salvage showing readers how to incorporate found and reclaimed materials into their home décor and furniture. Each chapter showcases inspiration for incorporating salvaged materials into your home in new ways including upcycled furnishings made from unexpected materials like old signs turned into a credenza. Ways to incorporate original hardwood flooring or trim into any style whether you prefer a more traditional look or a modern, sleek design or an eclectic mix of materials and how to include them in your home. Whether that is using a marble remnant to make a brand new countertop turning broken tiles into a bespoke backsplash or using offcuts of wood to create a one-of-a-kind gorgeous side table. Tips for finding salvaged and reclaimed materials as well as insights into thrifting furniture and finding old things to love in your new home. The way authors Bo Shepherd and Kyle Dubay give readers the tools to bring that unique style home for fans of historic details and homes with a story, Throwbacks Home Interiors offers plenty of inspiration for reusing, restyling, and elevating items that you find or love matching modern with antique for a home that is stylish and personal.
